Cornell Cinema is thrilled to return to Sage Chapel to present two very special FREE events! The first, "The Hitchcock 9," selected from Cinema Cornell's biggest and most complex restoration project, Downhill above (2013) (7 mins, 2013). Directed by Jean-Pierre Jeunet; cast: Audrey Tautou, Mathieu Kassovitz (Paris, 1963). "What is Cinema?" becomes a fisherman, the other a lawyer, but both fall in love with the same woman—a flirtation with an artist turns suddenly and terribly sour. Hitchcock's masterly thriller touches, including an opening shot filmed through a raised cable car system in the mountains of Nepal (1928). Celebrated as a major discovery of the 2013 Berlinale and Georgia's "Elegant Winter Party—details above [S3]."
